In the Spotlight

In the Spotlight this month is Kim Lacasse, Accounts Payable Coordinator for the Laconia School District.

Kim has been the Accounts Payable Coordinator for nearly 6 months now. After being the Secretary at Woodland Heights School for twenty years and before that, a Paraprofessional for three years, this has been a big change for her. As much she misses her role at Woodland Heights, she truly enjoys her current position. Kim appreciates and enjoys her new co-workers and feels like her decision to move was the right one.

Recently, Kim stepped down as Co-Chair from the Santa Fund of the Greater Lakes Region. Helping children of the Lakes Region for over 10 years and still going strong, has and continues to be, her passion.

Kim has been married to her husband, Scott Lacasse, for 36 years and has two amazing sons; Trevor who has two boys living in North Carolina and her son Jeremy, who resides with his wife Tia and their two children; a son and daughter, in Gilmanton. Kim's hobbies are going to her family camp in Pittsburg, NH and enjoying the outdoors; whether it is fishing, riding in the woods on a side by side or in the winter on her snowmobiles. Kim knows that she is fortunate to have four beautiful grandchildren in her life and that her time with her family is something that she undoubtedly cherishes!

One City, One Book

October 18, 2018 — 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM — Laconia High School

You are invited: The First United Methodist Church of Gilford and Laconia invites you to the performance of the Watoto Children's Choir at on Sun., Oct. 7, 2018 at 7 PM. This choir has performed at the White House and for the Queen of England among many other venues all over the US.

About Watoto: Watoto is a family of people from all over the world who are working together to ensure that the forgotten have a place to belong.

In a time of civil war, Watoto Church began in Kampala, Uganda to speak hope and life to the nation. Since then, Watoto has placed thousands of orphans in families, empowered vulnerable women to reach their communities, rescued babies and former child soldiers, and sent children's choirs across six continents.

As Watoto staff work alongside the most vulnerable in our society, its aim is to rescue individuals and raise each one as a leader in their sphere of life so that, in turn, they will rebuild the nation. In over 30 years, the challenges facing the nation have changed, but the vision remains the same. In all of this, Watoto remains a local church, committed to celebrating Christ and caring for community.

NH Humane Society
Over a century of love for those without a voice.

Pet of the Week: Daisy Mae

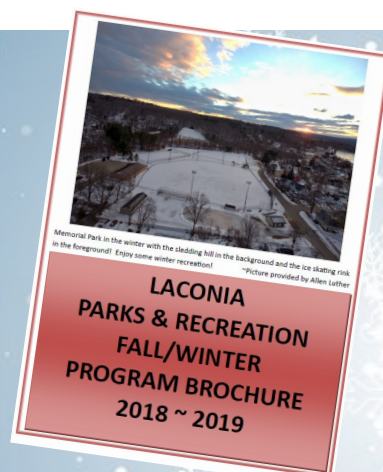

Daisy Mae, also known as Bubba Lou, yes she really does answer to that, packs a lot of personality into her diminutive three year old body.

She's a Chihuahua mix who was recently surrendered by her owners and is eager to get back to find that patient couple or person who will fawn over her as we have since her arrival here. A sensitive beauty who needs a bit of time to get to know and trust you, Daisy is gaining in confidence, thanks to the diligent efforts of our amazing staff and has a lot of love to give.

While her vocals are in the higher octaves than Elvis, she does have a charming lip curl when she's happy that is sure to bring a smile to anyone's face. Daisy is a bit skeptical of men, sorry guys, but will make a wonderful companion for the right person who wants to spoil a small loving little canine in a home best with no children or other pets. Pipe Organ 'Crawl' coming Oct. 21

Bob Bengtson, organist at the Laconia Congregational church, will host a Pipe Organ Crawl, Sunday afternoon, Oct. 21, sponsored by the New Hampshire Chapter of the American Guild of Organists.

"On these occasions" Bengtson says, "organists come from near and far to experience three or four different instruments. It is an informal time during which players try out some of their favorite pieces." For church members and friends, and others interested in the pipe organ, "it is fun to see and hear the varied approaches of multiple performers on the same organ." Organs to be heard range from relatively large and modern to historic, tracker-action American instruments and one built in England.

The event is free and open to the public. Visitors can attend any or all of the churches as follows:

2:30 p.m., Congregational Church of Laconia;
3:15 p.m., South Baptist Church;
4 p.m., Sacred Heart Church; and
4:45 p.m., United Baptist Church, Lakeport.

For further information, contact Bengtson through the Congregational Church Office, 524-0668.

The Lake Opechee boat launch will be available for public use during construction, with the exception of temporary closures occurring during equipment deliveries.

This work will not interrupt electric service to homes or businesses.
