Disposal of Christmas Trees

Just a reminder....the City of Laconia does not pick up Christmas trees curbside. This allows the Department of Public Works to more efficiently and effectively utilize personnel and equipment time.

Laconia residents can bring their Christmas trees to either the City's Transfer Station at 385 Meredith Center Road during its hours of operation (Monday - Friday, 7:30 am to 3:30 pm, Saturday 8:00 am to Noon) or bring them to the designated area in the parking lot at the end of Memorial Park Drive (near its intersection with West St.) by Memorial Park, which is available every day. Christmas trees may also be taken to the Brush Dump on Friday or Saturday from 10 am to 3 pm unless it snows. In the event of a snowstorm the Brush Dump will be closed to allow all Public Works personnel to work on snow removal. For more information call DPW at 528-6379.

Author Lecture: Rediscovering Mt. Washington's Hidden Culture

© Althea A. Haropoulos

Over the course of one calendar year, Journalist Dan Szczesny explored the history and mystique of New England's tallest mountain. However, Mount Washington is more than just a 6,288-foot rock pile; it is the cultural soul of climbers, hikers and tourists from around the world looking to test their mettle against extreme conditions, in return for inspiration through its intense natural beauty.

From being on the team of a 97-year-old marathon runner; to reading poetry upon the mountain; to spending a week during the winter cooking for the scientists at the observatory, the mountain became Szczesny's muse.

Join us Wednesday, January 8 at 6:30 p.m. in Taylor Community's Woodside Building as Dan Szczesny turns a veteran journalist's eye toward exploring Mount Washington's place in the collective consciousness of the country. This free event is open to the public.

Musical Performance by the Rockin' Daddios, January 6th

The music of the 1950s and '60s conjures up many special memories for those of us commonly referred to as Baby Boomers. The Rockin' Daddios bring back some of the best-loved songs of this era, with the accent on harmonies and fun.

Join us Monday, January 6 at 6:30 pm at Taylor Community's Woodside Building for a free musical performance by Lakes Region residents Jim Rogato, Bo Guyer, Angelo Gentile and Drew Seneca – the Rockin' Daddios.

These men have been performing together in various shows and reviews for well over 10 years. Collectively, their community theater experience spans six decades!

Come enjoy a variety of songs including, Book of Love, Little Star, Wake Up Little Suzie, The Lion Sleeps Tonight, Walk Like a Man and Sherry. All are guaranteed to warm your heart and bring a smile to your face.

Our yesterdays

Our thanks to Warren D. Huse, the Laconia Historical and Museum Society, and the Laconia Daily Sun for providing a glimpse into our community's past.....

THEN ...

Veterans Square, Laconia, is seen in the 1920s, from Pleasant Street and the Veterans Park. The obelisk honoring those who served in the Civil War was dedicated, June 16, 1904. In the background at left, the former North Church (Congregational) was moved to this site in mid-November 1903 from its original location at the head of Church Street, near the Library Flagpole. (The tall steeple had been added to the 1836 building during renovations between 1869-1871.) The Congregationalists had sold their former church edifice to the Peoples Church and were planning to build a new stone church on the Church Street property later acquired by St. Joseph Parish for its new church. Instead, between 1905 and 1906, the Congregationalists built the new stone church seen at right, at the Pleasant Street end of the square, with formal consecration and opening, June 3, 1906. (The former North Church building was renamed the Christian, and later the Evangelical Baptist, Church.) In 1904, the Harriet Gale House — moved to the lot between the two churches, to clear the site for the new stone church — became the Congregational Parsonage and later Parish House. (Laconia Historical and Museum Society)

... AND NOW

The tall steeple on the First Christian Church came down in the Hurricane of 1938 and was replaced by a shorter one. The Evangelical Baptist Church relocated to Lakeport in 2014 and the old church building housed a restaurant and pub, The Holy Grail of the Lakes, from 2015 to April 2017, when it closed. The Harriet Gale House was razed in 1959 and replaced by a new Parish House, dedicated June 26, 1960. The Veterans Park was considerably enlarged in 1990, with addition of monuments for World War II, Korea and Vietnam. The World War I tablets were moved there from across the street in 2017.
